

Troupsburg Heritage Day

Honoring the 206th Year of Our Community and
Colonel Robert Troup, Esq. Who Served in the American Revolution

Saturday, July 5, 2014

Back By Popular Demand!

Civil War Encampment with the Bedford Light Artillery

- Artillery and musket demonstrations throughout the day on Saturday
- See the cannon fire and listen to the history at 11:30am and 1:30pm on 7/5
- Location: on Back Street, down the street from the Methodist Church

- 10:30am      Parade (lineup is at 9:30am--walk-ons are welcome)
- National Anthem by April Prutsman (outside the fire hall)
  - Ice cream sundaes at the Troupsburg Methodist Church (free to all, directly after parade)
- 11:00am      Entertainment & Food—at the center of town
- Chinese auction (fire hall) 10am- 2:30pm
  - Bounce House for kids
  - FFA “train” ride (free)
  - Boy Scouts of America—hot dogs, hamburgers, tacos in a bag, & drinks
  - Face painting by the JT Student Council (free)
  - Strawberry Shortcake (Austinburg Baptist Church)
  - Children's games
- 11:30-1:00pm      Auxiliary Dinner—fire hall
(donation)
- 1:00-3:00pm      Music by Ray London and the Boys (fire hall)
- 2:00pm      Awards--outside fire hall
- Parade Awards
  - Citizen Award
  - Heritage Day raffle drawing
- 2:30pm      Chinese Auction Drawings
- 10:00pm      Fireworks!

Visit www.troupsburg.com

Troupsburg Yard Sales: Saturday, August 2, 2014 (Stearns Chicken BBQ at fire hall 11:00am)